Headline:
Mostly dry, long spells of very warm or hot sunshine.

Today:
Another mostly dry dry day with almost unbroken very warm or, especially in the west, hot sunshine, although coasts likely to be a little cooler with light onshore breezes. Risk of an isolated shower over southern counties later this afternoon. Maximum temperature 28 deg C (82 deg F).

Tonight:
Dry through the evening with some late sunshine then mostly clear overnight. Patchy mist and low cloud may develop through the early hours. Light winds. Minimum temperature 10 deg C (50 deg F).

Monday:
Any low cloud and mist soon clearing to leave some warm sunshine. However cloud increases in the afternoon with outbreaks of, occasionally heavy, showery rain edging east through the evening. Maximum temperature 24 deg C (75 deg F).

Outlook for Tuesday to Thursday:
Much cooler and becoming increasingly unsettled with showers or longer spells of rain, these heavy and perhaps thundery at times.
